

Eighty Dollars Reward

Will be given for apprehending and securing the following FIVE GERMAN REDEMPTIONERS, so that their Master may get them again or SIXTEEN DOLLARS for either of them, including what the Law allows, and should they be brought home to the Subscriber, reasonable Expenses will be paid.

PAUL BASS, about 27 years of age, about 5 feet 9 inches high, a remarkable big-bodied man, a very large scar on his left hand, and knows something of the shoemaking business.

THOMAS STANG, a stout well-made man, about 5 feet 3 inches high, and about 30 years of age,

PETER BLANAGH, about 5 feet 9 inches high, slender made, and is about 25 years of age, and has lost some of his fore teeth.

JOHN GEORGE BRIESLER, about 27 years of age, 5 feet 3 or 9 inches high, has a cast in one of his eyes, occasioned by a cut which he received some years past.

JOHN GERMON, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, says he is a stone-cutter by trade, and has a remarkable scar over one of his eyes.

They all had blue coats when they went from home; their other cloathing uncertain.

They left their master's service the 26th inst. and were in Baltimore-Town a day or two, from whence it is thought they are gone towards Frederick-Town, or Little York.—As they are a set of ungrateful fellows, it is hoped the Public will take much pains to apprehend them, with others in like circumstances, or the emigrations from Germany must inevitably stop.

HARRY DORSEY GOUGH.

Perry Hall, near Baltimore-Town, March 31, 1785.
